

HUSBAND TRIED TO KILL HER JURY TO DECIDE WHETHER HER LOVE WAS KILLED

HE WAS ACCUSED OF SHOOTING HER TOWARD THE SEA

Portland, Dec. 2.—"I will give you that pair of stockings if you let me try them on yet," was the child-like plea of Mrs. Mary Thompson, wife of William N. Marston, her husband, killed at sea. Mrs. Marston is fighting a divorce action brought against her by Mr. Marston.

According to Mrs. Marston's version of the incident, which was hurried into the case like a bomb by the defense, Captain Eugene Thompson, husband of Mrs. Thompson, was in the room which Mrs. Marston visited this morning.

HE PUT 'EM ON HER

When Mrs. Marston told the stockings toward Mrs. Thompson and offered them to her, if she would let him try them on, Captain Thompson agreed her to accept the challenge, declared Mrs. Marston. The plaintiff proceeded to put the stockings on Mrs. Thompson.

THEY PLAYED DOMINOS

Domino C. L. Latham, a Yarmouth, N. S., was mentioned by the husband, in his suit, as called to the aid of Mrs. Marston. He admitted that on several occasions he played dominoes with her, in a military store she conducted at Yarmouth.

James M. Grevel, a local plumber, was brought into the case. Captain Grevel of the local police testified he secured Grevel for some reason at the Marston home, through a request from Mrs. Marston, for a plumber.

Captain Grevel, cross-examined by the attorney for the husband, was asked: "Did you take the plumber over and introduce him to Mrs. Marston?"

"Yes," he replied, then told of having taken the plumber to the Marston home to see the case.

"Did you feel that was ordinary work that it was not safe to go with the plumber?" he was asked.

"I did not want Marston to be able to say that he was coming from the Marston home," was his explanation.

MRS. MARSTON ON STAND

Grevel testified that what work he did at the Marston home was in the evening, as Mrs. Marston worked during the day and could not attend to her home then.

When Mrs. Marston took the stand she related details of her many efforts to keep her husband from leaving the home of Mrs. Thompson. She told of a visit from Mrs. Thompson when she ordered them to leave her home.

She told of numerous occasions when she had found her husband alone at her home, after he had apparently left. Questioned about taking linen from her husband's bed, she explained she was forced to do so when he refused to pay the laundry bill.

MOTHER SAVES TWO

IN SOMERVILLE FIRE

Going through the smoke-filled story of her home at No. 224 Clark street, Somerville, Mrs. Herbert W. Marston rescued her two sons, Franklin and Everett, when fire caused them damage there today. Mr. and Mrs. Marston, who occupy the first floor with their sons, Herbert and Arthur, escaped without injury.

BROCKTON MAN GETS USED TO HOUSEWORK

Husband Begins to Appreciate Wife's Efforts After Doing Family Washing

Brockton, Dec. 2.—Eugene P. Plasse of No. 9 Everett street, Brockton, is finding housework not at all loathsome. He's been at it a week now and is getting used to it. Mrs. Plasse is the bread winner of the home for the present.

It was because of this arrangement that Judge V. Carroll King in the district court continued the case against Plasse until December 27. He was charged with non-support of his wife and children, the complaint being brought by his wife.

According to Plasse an agreement was reached before going to court last Saturday, between himself and his wife, that he would stay at home and do the housework while she went out to work. When this story was told Judge King he ordered the case continued and if it works out well the complaint will be dismissed.

HAS BREAKFAST READY. Bright and early Monday morning Plasse started on his duties. He had breakfast ready for Mrs. Plasse and the children.

Then he began himself getting the children ready for school, and after they had gone, cleaned the dishes and put away the things that were used in the kitchen, whose duties he was now assuming.

The first thing was to make up the beds and then he turned to and swept the house from top to bottom.

By the time this work was done it was getting dangerously near the noon hour, when four hungry youngsters would be home for dinner.

When they arrived he had a savory meal ready for them, and then off to school they went again.

TACKLES FAMILY WASH. It was raining, and there was no chance for the family wash to dry, and that's why he didn't tackle that job in the morning. Women frequently pass up the washing on Monday morning if it's raining.

He plunged at the washing in the afternoon, and then had to wait until Wednesday before wet weather was suitable for out-of-door drying.

It was the same thing over again on Tuesday night on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It's a hard, monotonous sort of life at best, a fact that few men really appreciate, Plasse says, but he's game and is going through it.

Next week he will follow the same routine and again the week after. He's going to keep at his task until such time as his job in the shoe factory is open to him again.

NOT A PERMANENT JOB. "It's not a permanent thing by any means," said Plasse. "My wife happened to have this job offered to her and she took it."

"If I am not a leader, but I was out of work for several months through no fault of my own."

"My wife naturally became irritable when no money was coming in, and during the heat of anger secured the complaint against me. She was sorry for it afterwards and that's why we made this agreement."

CAPTAIN TURPIN CELLS MATE OF SINGLE

Married Life is Worst, Says Man Seeking Divorce From Princess Troubatzky

By HAZEL CANNING.
 "Put not your faith in princes," says the Bible.

And Turpin speaks so he says, from living experience. Horse by the fact that his counsel, Nathan Ulmer, just this week filed a suit for divorce on behalf of Turpin in Suffolk Superior Court, from a real live Princess Troubatzky—his wife.

Turpin, ex-convict, white pants gleaming in the eye, very precise and very cheerful, in the office of attorney Ulmer, just before the trial, left for New York and talked of "maternity" when just "maternity" take them, even when they are not.

HAS IDEAS OF HIS OWN.
 Now Turpin has ideas of his own, which sound, some of them, like those of that famous woman, Helen John Milton. (Remember Milton said one of her reasons for a woman.)

Then, again, Turpin has ideas, like Howard Shaw, "half Oscar Wilde" with a dash of George Moore and Greenwich Village thrown in. And all these ideas, center about woman, gentle woman, says Turpin.

"I met and loved and wooed and won," verily, so spoke he, "the Princess Troubatzky, when I was a man, an agent, came over here to your America to buy supplies for my government."

WAS PERSECUTED.
 "It is bad for a man to pursue a woman. Because he always overtakes her. Whereas it is well for him to pursue beauty. For he never will catch up with beauty. Therefore the man and the woman should seem ever worth pursuit in his eyes."

WAS PERSECUTED.
 "It is only with possession that the joy is dulled. But, as I was going to say, I turned from beauty to the prince of the world. Then we were separated by the war. And when I came back here I saw in the paper how my wife had married again."

Cabinet of Dal Eireann to Take Up Proposal in Dublin Tomorrow

London, Dec. 2 (By the Associated Press).—The British Government's latest proposals for settlement of the Irish question will be considered by the Cabinet of the Irish Eireann in Dublin Saturday.

Sinn Féin's Attack
 Jail in Londonderry
 Belfast, Dec. 2 (By the Associated Press).—An attack on the jail at Londonderry with the object of releasing the prisoners was repulsed by the police guards today.

Two policemen were killed and several of the attackers captured. The party gained entrance to the jail undisturbed, and the prisoners were not discovered until a patrol of police men saw a rope ladder hanging over the wall, and gave the alarm.

The military guard found no one in the jail, and the two constables who guarded the Sinn Féin party were the only ones who were seen. They were dragged and dragged.

WILD WOMAN IS GIRL BATTLES SIGHTED IN MALDEN

Police Search for Strange Visitant Results in Finding Big Dog Tied to Tree

The mysterious woman who has kept the countryside about Malden and North Salem in a state of alarm several weeks with her strange, night visitations and wild shrieks in the dead of night, has again come to light. This time in Malden.

Shortly before midnight, James Tamm of No. 134 Essex street, Malden, heard someone come up on the front porch. Hearing no knock, he peered through a window and saw the shadowy form of a woman looking towards the light.

Hastening to open the door, he called to her and asked for a person. The woman turned, swiftly and dashed down the steps to the sidewalk, where she stopped for a moment to give vent to a piercing scream.

Then she ran away towards the woods that border on the edge of the Tamm residence, which is situated at the Malden-Salem line.

The case has been a source of much interest to the police, who have been unable to find any trace of the woman.

The Finest Milk Sold in America—A 20-Year Development

Rich, Whole Milk, Reduced to Double Richness by Low Heat Evaporation. Sealed at Model Condensaries in Many Great Dairying Districts. "The Cow in the Pantry"

We have spent twenty years to make Van Camp's Milk the finest milk sold in America. The ablest milk experts have helped us. Model condensaries—each with a laboratory—have been built in many great dairying districts. We have bought thousands of high-bred cows. Sanitary dairies have been developed, which are constantly inspected. Today millions of homes serve a perfect milk, because of what we have done in Van Camp's.

It's a Safe Milk. Van Camp's is a sterilized milk. After it is sealed in the can we sterilize the milk. You thus get a germ-free milk. It is never an old milk. All our condensaries are close to the dairies. The milk is evaporated soon after milking. You never get milk in bottles which is nearly so fresh as Van Camp's. Thick as Cream. Van Camp's is as thick as cream. We take the whole milk as it comes from the cow and put it in a vacuum. There, by low heat, we evaporate over half the water from the milk.
